

Brandon Lee
AmeriCorps VISTA
Community Organizing Associate

Brandon Lee is the AmeriCorps VISTA Community Organizing Associate at Asian American Institute. He will be working to expand awareness of Asian Americans in poverty amongst community members, developing educational curriculum for current issues that affect the community, and creating sustainable record keeping methods for current and future projects.

Mr. Lee was born, raised, and currently resides in the Uptown neighborhood of Chicago. His first encounter with the Asian American Institute was through Election Day poll watching in 2007. Soon after, he participated in the inaugural Impact Fellowship Program class in the summer of 2007.

Mr. Lee graduated from the University of Illinois-Chicago with a Bachelor's degree in Political Science. While at UIC he was a member of the Asian American Coalition Committee and worked as the Asian American Resource and Cultural Center's Community Outreach Coordinator. In his spare time, he enjoys attending concerts, eating, discussing politics, and cheering on the Cubs.
